Stockholm University

Welcome to the international symposium

supported by The Swedish Research Council

Speech, Language and Cognition: State of the StArt

Held in honor of Professor Francisco Lacerda's 60th birthday!

October 24, 2012 from 9am to 5pm in DeGeersalen, Stockholm University

Program

09.00-09.30	Coffee and Registration
09.30-09.45	Welcome
09.45-10.15	Björn Lindblom, Professor em. of Phonetics, Stockholm University: Phonetics for the learner: Easy way sounds OK
10.15-10.45	Linda Polka, Dr., School of Comm. Sciences & Disorders, McGill University, Montreal, Canada: Navigating two languages in Infancy
10.45-11.15	Karl- Magnus Petersson, Senior Investigator, Neurobiology of Lang. Dept., Max Planck Institute for Psycholinguistics, Nijmegen, The Netherlands: Revisiting the Competence-Performance Distinction from a Neurobiological Point of View
11.15-11.30	Discussion
11.30-13.00	Lunch: Orangeriet, Bergianska Trädgården
13.00-13.30	Kjell Elenius & Mats Blomberg, Senior Researchers, TMH, KTH, Stockholm: Data-driven and knowledge-based approaches for automatic speech recognition
13.30-14.00	Anders Eriksson, Professor of Phonetics, University of Gothenburg, Gothenburg: Presenting forensic speech evidence in court - A possible paradigm shift
14.00-14.30	Johan Sundberg, Professor em. of Music Acoustics, CSC/TMH, KTH, Stockholm: Expression in vocal music performance: Where did we learn the code?
14.30-14.45	Discussion
14.45-15.15	Refreshments
15.15-15.45	Johan Lind, Associate Professor, Centre for the Study of Cultural Evolution/Department of Zoology, Stockholm University: What can animals do?
15.45-16.15	Peter Pagin, Professor, Department of Philosophy, Stockholm University: The Phenomenal Sorites
16.15-16.45	Discussion
16.45-17.00	Closure
	……
18.00-22.00	Buffet: Fakultetsklubben, SU